- c. Commercial. Commercial Members are individuals or companies that sell services or products to park, recreation and conservation agencies.

Section 4. Honorary Lifetime Membership. Upon recommendation to and approval of the Board, honorary lifetime membership may be extended to those individuals who have distinguished themselves in the park and recreation movement and who have made significant contributions to the Association, including service as IPRA President or Chair upon leaving the field of parks and recreation in good standing.

Section 5. Termination of Membership. Membership can be terminated by voluntary withdrawal or non-payment of dues or by two thirds (2/3rd) vote by the quorum of the Board of Directors for cause.

Article IV OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the IPRA Board of Directors of the Association shall be the Chair of the Board, immediate past-Chair of the Board, Chair of the Board-elect, and Secretary all of which shall be certified professionals in their fields. These same officers will also constitute the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Election. Officers shall be elected/appointed in the following manner:

- a. The members of the Board of Directors, prior to the general IPRA elections, shall elect the Chair of the Board-Elect annually by a majority vote. Any Board member holding a professional certification serving on the IPRA Board at the time of the election process is eligible to be nominated for Chair of the Board-Elect. All officers must be certified prior to being considered to run for an officer position.
- b. The Secretary shall be elected annually by the members of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Vote Count. Each Board member shall have one vote in the selection of all officer positions. The total number of nine (9) votes cast shall be as follows:

- Chair of the Board (1 vote)
- Chair of the Board-Elect (1 vote)
- Immediate Past-Chair of the Board (1 vote)
- Section Director Council Representative (1 vote)
- Four Geographic Members (1 vote per geographic region)
- At-Large Member (1 vote)

Section 4. Terms. Terms of officers shall be one year in length and begin and expire at the time of the annual Bylaws approved July 27, 2023 business meeting, of each year.

Section 5. Voting. The following voting methods shall be followed by the Association:

- a. Ballot voting will be used on matters such as elections and other issues that require a vote requiring anonymity.
- b. A Board member may be considered present if they are present on a conference call. These Board members shall be allowed to cast their vote on matters before the Board, but only at the exact time the official vote is cast.
- c. Electronic voting via written ballot can occur on Board matters. However, the vote must be unanimous, or the vote does not stand and a re-vote will be required at a Board meeting.

Section 6. Vacancy.

- a. Declaration of a Vacancy. A vacancy of an officer position shall be declared when caused by death, separation from work in the field of parks and recreation, a move to an agency outside the State of Illinois or by letter to the Chair of the Board for any other reason. In the case of the Chair of the Board, a letter of resignation shall be delivered to the Secretary.
- b. Filling an Officer Vacancy.
 1. Vacancies of the Secretary position shall be filled for the balance of the term by appointment by the Chair of the Board with the approval of a majority of the remaining Board members present at a duly called meeting.
 2. In the case of a vacancy of the Chair of the Board, the Chair of the Board-elect shall take the office for the remaining term.
 3. In the case of the vacancy of Chair of the Board-Elect, a special election by the Board shall be held and elected by a majority with notification of results given to the membership.
 4. In the case of the vacancy of the Past Chair of the Board, the Chair of the Board shall appoint another Past Chair of IPRA with board approval for the remainder of the term.
 5. Except in the case of the term of the vacated Chair, all other terms shall be for the remaining term of the office.

Section 7. Executive Director. A salaried staff person employed or appointed by, and directly responsible to the Board of Directors, shall execute the administration and management of the Association. The person shall have the title Executive Director, or other such title as designated by the Board. The Executive Director shall employ other staff necessary to carry out the work of the Association as approved within the budget. This person shall also serve as the registered agent and direct all functions of the Association as deemed necessary by the Board. The Executive Director serves as the Association Treasurer.

Section 8. Chair of the Board. The Chair of the Board shall act as presiding officer at meetings of the Board and general meetings of the Association. The Chair of the Board shall be ex-officio member of all Association committees and perform other duties necessary to the office of Chair of the Board or as prescribed by the Board of Directors. The Chair of the Board serves as the Chair of the Executive Committee.

Section 9. Chair of the Board-Elect. The Chair of the Board-Elect shall serve in any capacity that the Chair of the Board may deem appropriate and shall act as presiding officer of meetings during the absence of the Chair of the Board. The Chair Elect will serve as a non-voting member of the Finance Committee.

Section 10. Immediate Past-Chair of the Board. The immediate Past-Chair of the Board shall act as presiding officer of meetings in the absence of the Chair of the Board and Chair of the Board-Elect. Additionally, the Past Chair shall serve as the chair of the Governance Committee.

Section 11. Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping an accurate record of all meetings and business of the Association.

Section 12. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall serve as the registered agent and perform those required duties. The Executive Director shall act as Treasurer.

Section 13. Finance Chair. The Finance Chair shall be appointed annually by the Chair of the Board-Elect and approved by the Board of Directors by a majority vote. The Finance Chair is responsible for presenting financial information to the Association but is not a member of the Board.

Section 14. Insurance. IPRA shall purchase and maintain a Directors and Officers insurance policy as outlined in the IPRA Financial Policies.

Article V

BOARD OF DIRECTORS (“Board”)

Section 1. Powers. The Board is a policy and vision setting Board. The Board shall determine its policies, establish guidelines for its operation and shall have discretion in disbursement of its funds. It may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable and may, in the execution of powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary.

Section 2. Composition. The Association Board shall consist of professionals consisting of the following voting members:

- a. Chair of the Board, Chair of the Board-Elect, Immediate Past-Chair of the Board and Secretary
- b. A Representative from the Section Director Council
- c. Four geographic members in the case of Article XI: Geographic Representatives, Section 4: Non-Representation.
- d. One Member At-Large from the state of Illinois in the case of Article XI: Geographic Representatives, Section 4: Non-Representation.
- e. All board members will hold a certification that is awarded by either examination or balanced continuing education units or credits on an annual basis. If a candidate does not have a certification, the candidate must meet the eligibility to sit for the certification exam by the time the ballot goes out and must achieve certification within the first year in office.

Section 3. Executive Committee. The executive committee of the Board shall consist of Chair of the Board, Chair of the Board-Elect, immediate Past-Chair of the Board, and Secretary. Duties will include personnel management related to the needs of the Executive Director, items of immediate nature or unforeseen circumstances that must be addressed prior to the next scheduled board meeting, and oversight of the Executive Director evaluation process.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board shall hold an annual business meeting as part of the state conference and hold regular meetings as deemed necessary by the Chair of the Board.

Section 5. Quorum. A majority of the voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

Section 6. Absences. Any member of the Board unable to attend a meeting shall communicate to the Chair of the Board and Executive Director, stating the reason for the absence. If a Board member is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings for reasons which the Board declares to be insufficient, the member's resignation shall be deemed to have been tendered and accepted. Attendee is deemed present whether in-person or via conference call.

Section 7. Vacancies.

- a. Declaration of a Vacancy. A vacancy of a Board position shall be declared when caused by death, separation from work in the field of parks, recreation and/or conservation in the State of Illinois, a move from a job from the geographic zone to which Board member was elected to represent, as covered under other sections of these bylaws, or by letter to the Chair of the Board for any other reason.
- b. Filling of Vacancies. Vacancies of Board positions, not including officers, (see Article IV) or Section Director Council's Representative (see Article IX): a) if the vacancy occurs during the first year of the term of office, then it should be filled by the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes in the vacating member's election. If this cannot occur, the vacancy shall be filled by a recommendation by the Chair of the Board, except as elsewhere and herein covered. B) If the vacancy occurs beyond the first year of the term of office, then it shall be filled by announcing an opening to the members and having the members in the appropriate region submit applications as they normally would for an open board seat. The applications will go to the Executive Committee of the board (rather than the Governance Committee, who may or may not be currently appointed) who will review the applications, host phone interviews of the candidates, and will make a recommendation to the board. The recommendation shall be for the remaining term of the vacant office and approved by a two-thirds (2/3rd) vote by the quorum of the remaining Board members present at the duly called meeting.
- c. Filling the Board Vacancy Left by the Election of the New Chair of the Board-Elect. Since the Chair of the Board-Elect is elected from a current position on the Association Board, the following procedure shall be used to fill the vacancy:

1. If the newly elected Chair of the Board-Elect has two (2) years remaining on their term, then the Governance Committee shall select a candidate to run for the remaining portion of the term. These candidates shall be placed on the ballot and the successor to the vacated position will be determined by the membership in the general election.
2. If the newly elected Chair of the Board-Elect has one (1) year remaining on their term, then the Governance Committee shall recommend, through a selection process, a candidate to fill the vacated term. The candidate must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3rd) vote by the quorum of the Board at its next scheduled meeting and the candidate will take office upon the official swearing-in of the new Chair of the Board-Elect.
3. If the newly elected person is in the final year of their Board term, standard nomination and election procedures would take place as in naming a successor to any open Board position.
4. If the newly elected person is the Section Director Council's Representative, the Board would refer to provisions in Article IX, Section Director Council, to fill the vacant position.

Section 8. Resignation or Removal. Any Board member may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chair of the Board. Any Board member may be removed as permitted by applicable law.

Article VI DUES

Section 1. Established. The annual dues shall be established by the Board and payable by a determined deadline each year. The Board shall hold an open Board meeting before the establishment of the dues.

Section 2. Non-Payment. Members who fail to pay their dues by a determined deadline shall be removed from membership, without hearing, for non-payment. Once removed from membership, a member must file a new application for membership to be reinstated.

Article VII COMMITTEES

Section 1. Types. There shall be three types of Association committees: IPRA Committees, Joint Committees and special committees or task forces. IPRA and Joint Committees shall be identified and approved by the Board before the annual business meeting. Special committees or task forces can be created and approved at any time as deemed necessary.

- a. IPRA Committees. IPRA Committees shall originate from the Association and shall be established to deal specifically with professional concerns and/or Association priorities.
- b. Joint Committees. Joint Committees shall be developed as outlined in the IAPD/IPRA Joint Agreement. The intent of these committees is to jointly participate on common parks and recreation priorities such as legislative, editorial and conference. Membership of service committees shall be open to all professional members.
- c. Special Committees and Task Forces. Special committees and task forces may be formed to serve an immediate and single purpose and may be created or dissolved by the Chair of the Board of the Illinois Park and Recreation Association. Membership and chairmanship of the special committees and task forces are open to all Association members.

Section 2. Chairperson. The Chair-elect, prior to the annual business meeting, shall appoint Chairs to all IPRA and Joint Committees and the Board shall approve the appointments. Any professional member may chair any committee or task force.

Section 3. Membership. The Finance Committee will consist of five members, each serving a five-year term. The committee size of other committees will vary but have a minimum of three members. Members of the Association may serve on multiple committees but may not serve as chair of more than one committee.

Section 4. Meetings. Chairs of all Association committees shall hold regular meetings and shall notify IPRA at least five (5) days prior to the committee meetings.

Section 5. Liaisons. The Chair may designate IPRA Board members to serve as liaisons for IPRA Committees.

Article VIII SECTIONS

Section 1. Definition. IPRA has eight special interest sections that are open for any active member to join.

- a. Administration & Finance
- b. Communications & Marketing
- c. Diversity
- d. Facility Management
- e. Forest Preserve & Conservation
- f. Parks & Natural Resource Management
- g. Recreation
- h. Therapeutic Recreation

Section 2. Section Officers. Each section shall establish officers, as outlined in section guidelines. The officers of each section shall be Section Director, Section Education Director and Section Communications Director.

Section 3. Fiscal. The IPRA Board shall have budget approval and fiscal control over all sections.

Section 4. New Section. A minimum of fifty (50) Association members should be identified to request the establishment of a section. A petition for any such action must be presented and approved by the IPRA Board.

Section 5. Disbanding. A section may be disbanded by the IPRA Board for failure to provide services and leadership or request for disbanding by that section. A drop in membership below fifty (50) would be cause for review by the Board and presented for vote.

Article IX

SECTION DIRECTOR COUNCIL

Section 1. Membership. The Section Director Council will consist of the Section Director from each identified section of the Association and one Representative to the IPRA Board of Directors.

Section 2. Representative to IPRA Board. The Section Director Council will have one (1) individual on the Board of Directors to provide representation for all sections. Selection of the IPRA Board Representative will be through the standard election in the fall. All active members may vote in the election.

Section 3. Vacancies.

- a. Declaration of a Vacancy. A vacancy of the Section Director Council Representative shall be declared when a determination of vacancy is made and presented, in writing, to the IPRA Chair of the Board.
- b. Filling of Vacancies.

1. In the case of the vacancy of the Section

Director Council Representative, the Governance Committee shall recommend, through a selection process, a candidate to fill the vacated term. The candidate must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3rd) vote by the quorum of the Board at its next scheduled meeting.

2. In the case of the vacancy of any Section officer, the position shall be filled according to section guidelines.

Article X

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Membership of the Governance Committee.

The Governance Committee shall be selected by the Past Chair of the Board with the following constitution:

- a. Past Chair of the Board, shall act as Chair;
- b. At least two (2) members from the Section Director Council;
- c. At least one (1) member from each membership region.

Section 2. The Governance Committee shall ensure that minimum Board Standards are met by each candidate and make recommendation to the Past Chair for who is eligible to be slated on the ballot. The Executive Director shall set all dates for the elections to comply with these bylaws and oversee the election process.

Section 3. Conduct of Nominations. Committee responsibilities are:

- a. The committee may choose to specifically recruit potential leaders, however the candidate must still complete the application to be considered.
- b. The committee members shall review and validate that the individual's credentials meet the outlined requirements to serve on the IPRA Board and that each candidate is only eligible for one open position;
- c. The committee may make recommendations to the board to remove any candidate from the slate who is deemed to be a less viable candidate or leader for IPRA and then present to the Association Board for approval, a slate of candidates, for all open positions except for the Chair of the Board and Chair of the Board-Elect positions at least sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting. The election of the Chair of the Board-Elect shall follow the process outlined in

Article IV – Officers.

- d. The Past Chair will notify all candidates of their acceptance or non-acceptance regarding their candidacy.

Section 4. Conduct of Elections.

- a. Association Board members outlined in the bylaws shall be elected by electronic ballot.
- b. All ballots shall be prepared and distributed to members in good standing who are eligible to vote, and shall also include provisions for write-in votes, not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual business meeting.
- c. Each voting member shall cast their ballot within the voting timeframe.
- d. The Chair of the Governance Committee shall ratify the election results and present said results to the IPRA Board at the next scheduled meeting.

Section 5. Terms of Office. The following shall be the terms of office for Board members of the Association:
